

By Julie Hermesse,

Doctor in anthropology in the Catholic University of Louvain (Belgium), Laboratory of prospective anthropology

"An ode of striking humility, which brings us back to the heart of the deeper laws of life — those that go beyond mere survival and return us to the full experience of existence. An essential read, like an ancient song rediscovered."